

Allentown, PA – (September 29, 2008) Charles D. Peters, Jr., MD, general cardiologist, has joined The Heart Care Group, P.C. practice. With twenty-four cardiologists, The Heart Care Group is the largest independent cardiology practice in the Lehigh Valley.

Dr. Peters, Jr., received his MD from Medical College of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, and his BS from Muhlenberg College in Allentown, PA. He is board certified in Internal Medicine, Cardiovascular Disease, and Nuclear Cardiology. Dr. Peters completed his Internal Medicine Internship and his Internal Medicine Residency at the Naval Medical Center Portsmouth, VA. His Cardiovascular Fellowship was completed at the Naval Medical Center San Diego, CA.

After ten years of service in the United States Navy, Dr. Peters was released from active duty in September 2008. He remains active in the United States Navy Reserve. Most recently, he was Director of Cardiovascular Services at the Naval Hospital Camp Pendleton in California, and served as Staff Internist and Cardiologist at the Expeditionary Medical Facility in Kuwait (2006-2007).

Dr. Peters has medical privileges at Lehigh Valley Hospital – Cedar Crest; Lehigh Valley Hospital – Muhlenberg; St. Luke's Hospital Allentown Campus; St. Luke's Hospital Bethlehem Campus; St. Luke's Miners Memorial Hospital; and Palmerton Hospital.

A native of Allentown, PA, Dr. Peters resides in Allentown with his wife and two children. Dr. Peters is a Fellow of the American College of Cardiology, a member of the American College of Physicians, and a member of the American Society of Nuclear Cardiology.

A full service practice, The Heart Care Group, P.C., provides quality, comprehensive cardiovascular care that places the patients' health and well being above all other considerations. Their cardiologists serve the Greater Lehigh Valley and surrounding communities from several offices and most regional hospitals.